Superior self-catering apartments

This picturesque Surrey town came into being when the first major road was built in the South East during 1818, and has since grown into a lively South East England market town and commercial centre. Wherever you go in Redhill, it is easy to see the British heritage and history of this "new town", and, whether you need a modern contemporary lifestyle, with all of the facilities that this includes, or you prefer a more sedate and traditional pace of life, Redhill provides the perfect solution for all types of guest.

Nestled in the heart of Redhill Town Centre, this collection of Superior grade luxury apartments provides urban contemporary living within a discrete and private location. The development sits on a private and quiet elevated site only 25 metres from the centre of the town and is an ideal mix of luxury lifestyle with the most convenient and accessible location. On-site complimentary secure parking is allocated per apartment, and the well lit parking area is accessed via electronically controlled gates.

The interiors comprise of well planned spacious layouts, incorporating two large double bedrooms, as well as two bathrooms, which are ideal for clients with large families or that wish to share. Each apartment is tastefully decorated, with neutral tones complementing the co-ordinated soft furnishings, to provide a feeling of cool tranquility. Canadian wooden floors and executive level furnishings compliment the overall luxury feel of the apartments, to ensure that every client has a luxurious relaxing home at the end of a busy day.

Maple House is within easy walking distance of all of the local shops, restaurants, supermarket, gym and spa, and is also only five minutes walk from the local bus garage and train station.
